

Boston Area Screenings of

THE BUSINESS OF BEING BORN

A DOCUMENTARY FILM FROM EXECUTIVE PRODUCER RICKI LAKE AND DIRECTOR ABBY EPSTEIN

Saturday, February 2nd

1:30pm

Salem, MA

Cinema Salem: 1 East India Square

tickets $10

Crunchy Granola Baby and Cinema Salem will sponsor a screening to benefit the Massachusetts Friends of Midwives.

Thursday, February 7th

7:30pm

Belmont, MA

Studio Cinema: 376 Trapelo Road

tickets $11 online, $15 at door

Baby Loves Disco Boston Host Kristen Chalmers has organized a benefit screening for Autism Speaks.

Friday, February 8th

6pm

Dorchester, MA

Lilla Frederick Pilot Middle School: 270 Columbia Road

Donations suggested

The International Center for Traditional Childbirth and the Imani Family Life Center will sponsor a screening.

Saturday, February 9th

5:30pm

Roxbury, MA

First Church of Roxbury: 10 Putman Street

Donations suggested

The International Center for Traditional Childbirth and the Imani Family Life Center will sponsor a screening with a brief panel discussion to follow. Organizations will exhibit materials.

Tuesday, February 12th, "The Business of Being Born" is available from Netflix.

BEING BORN IN MASSACHUSETTS: PUSHING FOR MORE MIDWIVES

A PANEL DISCUSSION OF MATERNITY CARE POLICIES HOSTED BY OUR BODIES OURSELVES AND MASSACHUSETTS FRIENDS OF MIDWIVES

STATE SENATOR RICHARD MOORE AND REPRESENTATIVE KAY KHAN INVITED

Wednesday, February 27th

6pm

Boston, MA

Suffolk University Walsch Theater: 55 Temple Street

Donations suggested

Panelists include Tina Cassidy, author of "Birth: the Surprising History of How We are Born", Gene deClerq, PhD, Professor of Maternal-Child Health, BUSPH, Peggy Garland, CNM, MPH Massachusetts Coalition for Midwifery, Miriam Khalsa, CPM, Massachusetts Midwives Alliance, Robyn Churchill, CNM, MSN, Mt. Auburn Hospital, and moderated by Judy Norsigian, Executive Director, Our Bodies Ourselves.

**An optional screening of classic and recent birth films will begin at 4:30pm.

For additional information about the above events, to arrange a midwifery panel for your event, or to interview midwives, please contact massmidwives@mac.com